An invitation to celebrate art

We've all experienced uncertainty, loss and disruption in our lives the past two years. It's been a challenging journey, but one that has proven our strength lies in standing united as a community and looking forward to better days ahead. While the arts, particularly in public settings, have been significantly affected during this time, many artists stayed busy in isolation creating new and exciting work.

We want to share the art of these past two years with our community. A Return to Art is an invitation for you to meet and talk with artists, and enjoy the works of art created by our local artists, as well as artists from other parts of NJ.

Open to The Public (FREE)

Saturday, October 23rd and Sunday 24th, 10:00am to 4:00pm

Location:

1060 State Rd., Princeton, NJ 08540
